Re: Bakotic and Hackel v. Bako Pathology and BPA Holding Corp.

Dear Adriana:

If we do not reach resolution of the non-compete issue, I expect Drs. Bakotic and Hackel to begin competing at some point so we can bring the issue to a head and get some direction from the court. One of the benefits of reaching an agreement is that we will get clarity quickly and definitively without the cost of discovery, motions practice and further litigation.
